Empower Your Team

Introducing new-operator, refresher, and advanced operator training.

When you are developing cutting-edge cell therapies, you know it is critical to avoid waste, reduce variability, and maximize the effectiveness of your manufacturing devices. That makes operator skill paramount. For more than 60 years, Terumo Blood and Cell Technologies has been trusted to provide excellent training that supports our customers in achieving the best patient outcomes.

Now, through our Veda Skills solution, we are pleased to introduce training options for the Quantum Flex Cell Expansion System, Finia® Fill and Finish System, and Quantum® Cell Expansion System.

See next page for current course descriptions.

Veda Skills courses are rooted in our extensive experience in blood and cell collection and cell therapy manufacturing.
